Introduction
A Whole Institution Approach in the Baltic Sea Project – what's next?
Martin Jarrath

9:50 Bar Camp Youth Cooperation in the UNESCO Baltic Sea Project

The bar camp starts with a brainstorm session on what you wish to collaborate on together with other young people in the Baltic Sea Project. You will identify topics and ideas that are practical to execute and in which you are keen to participate in. These ideas should culminate in concrete workshops that you will register for and engage in to work with over the next two days.
